About:

A series of 4 live online meetings, each lasting 1.5 hours, where participants will discuss the book The Intrapreneur's Guide to Pathfinding by authors Marjorie Brans, Maggie De Pree, Florencia Estrade (The League of Intrapreneurs). Between the meetings, asynchronous activities will also take place, guided by facilitator Carol Novak.

How it works:

The live online meetings involve discussing the book's content and exchanging ideas through activities based on questions proposed by the authors and active methodologies. Asynchronous activities complement the live sessions and foster informal connections among participants.

Mediator:

Carol Novak

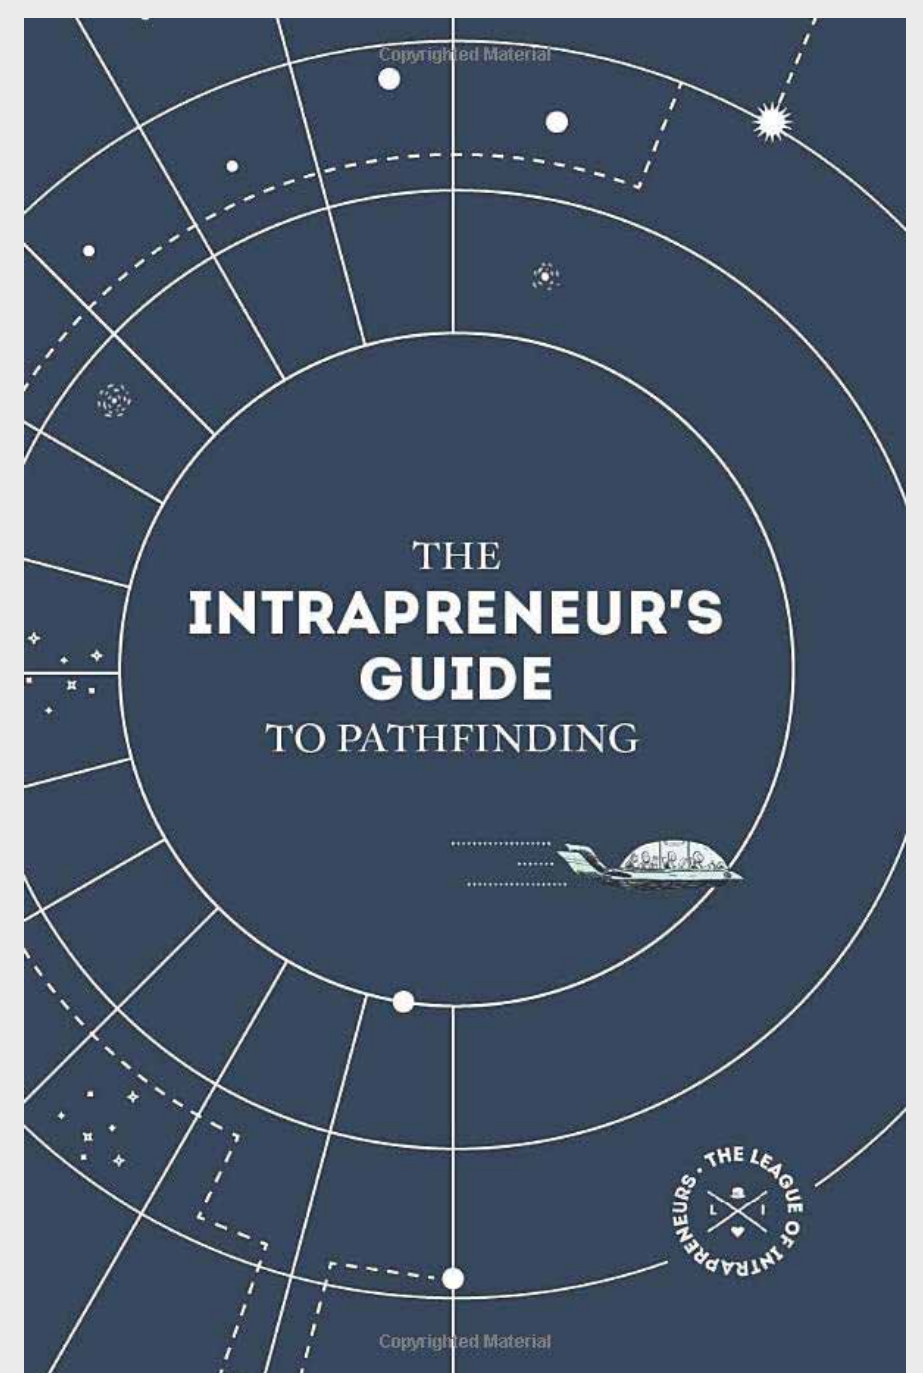

Carolina Novak is from the 3rd generation of the Freitas & Romano Group, who have been members of FBN for 8 years. She has over 10 years of business experience, and leads the implementation of the Impact Community in Brazil.

The Book:

The Intrapreneur's Guide to Pathfinding

In a rapidly changing world, organizations have recognized the need to foster an innovation mindset and entrepreneurial behaviors. The Intrapreneur's Guide to Pathfinding is both a source of inspiration and a toolbox for those seeking to develop this mindset and unleash their entrepreneurial spirit, whether in projects within established companies or creating new businesses. Key topics covered in the guide include innovation, organizational dynamics, (intra)entrepreneurship principles, change management, adaptability and resilience, agility, radical collaboration, and impact.
